1. Please read the NZIPP standard terms of trade. Copyright in all parts of all images created is assigned to Nicola Topping and remains the property of the photographer. Under the standard Terms of Trade you purchase a license to use the copyright images off the photographer.
2. A deposit of $500 is payable on booking.
3. On payment of your deposit the agreed time and date will be reserved, no other bookings will be taken. For this reason all deposits are non-refundable.
4. The balance of the package price is due on collection of proofs.
5. For non-package orders, All orders will be payable at time of ordering. Products will be released on receipt of full payment.
6. All prices in the issued price list are current at time of issue. Given the timeframe of wedding bookings, all prices (with the exception of packages and products already booked or ordered) are subject to change without notice.
7. In the event of serious illness or death, where your photographer is physically not able to photograph your wedding, Every attempt will be made to find a replacement photographer of equal or superior quality. In this event Real Image Ltd or Nicola Topping holds no responsibility for the resulting product.
8. Image selection for pre-ordered album packages should be received by Real Image within 6 weeks of your viewing. If more time is required for decisions, please make arrangements for this. Delays in finalising album orders may be subject to increased production costs.
9. It is standard practice of RealImage to request a couples permission prior to any images being published in magazines for editorial or advertising purposes. Real Image retains the right to use images for studio displays, the Real Image website, photographic award entries and other promotional material without first seeking approval.
